Continuation of 3. NOTE: the new limitation metal agent includes "at least one B-diketonate ligand" raises the new issue of new matter. It is not clear wherein the specification teaching of this limitation. .

Continuation of 13. Other: Applicant's request for rejoining of the product and process claims has not been considered because in order to rejoin the non-elected process claims, they must depend from or require all the limitations of an allowable product claim (please see MPEP 821.04(b)). However, the instant process claim 18 cites a method to form a CMP material not a CMP pad as cited in product claim 1. Therefore, it does not require all the limitations of the product claim.
